

Planets and Stars (a Lullabye)

words & music by Stephanie Bennett 1996

$\text{♩} = 110$

Asus4 Amin E7sus4 E7 Asus4 Amin E7sus4 E7(#5)

Vocal

Harp

1 p

Amin Bm7(b5) Amin G#dim CMaj7/G CMaj7

tuck you in, I gaze at the sky, grow - ing

5

Bm7(b5) E7sus4 E7 E/A Amin E7sus4 E7

dark now the day is com - plete. And the 9

Amin Bm7(b5) Amin/C Fdim Amin/E Amin

wind and I will sing lull - a - bye, some - thing

13

The musical score is written for voice and harp in 3/4 time. It consists of four systems of music. The first system (measures 1-4) features a vocal line with a triplet of eighth notes and a harp accompaniment starting with a piano (p) dynamic. The second system (measures 5-8) includes the lyrics 'tuck you in, I gaze at the sky, grow - ing' and a harp accompaniment with a G#dim chord. The third system (measures 9-12) includes the lyrics 'dark now the day is com - plete. And the' and a harp accompaniment with a G# chord. The fourth system (measures 13-16) includes the lyrics 'wind and I will sing lull - a - bye, some - thing' and a harp accompaniment. Chord progressions are indicated above the vocal line and below the harp line.